SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

It is indeed a privilege for me, as Superintendent of Schools, to be asked to contribute to your yearbook.

I have had the pleasure of working with the seniors from the third grade to the twelfth grade. It has been a most rewarding experience for me.

Your school and your teachers have made available to you the necessary educational experiences to prepare you, in part, for your position in an adult world. We hope that the exposure you have had to the basic democratic principles of our government will help you become responsible and productive citizens of the community you serve.

If I could give you one last bit of advice, it would come from a stanza of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's poem, "The Village Blacksmith":

Toiling,—rejoicing,—sorrowing,
Onward through life he goes;
Each morning sees some task begin,
Each evening sees it close.
Something attempted, something done,
Has earned a night's repose.

May the best of life be given to each of you in the years ahead.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

GLENN ARMSTRONG
Adviser

The Fairfield Chapter of the National Honor Society was chartered in 1968. Membership in the National Honor Society is recognized nationally as one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a high school student. To be selected for membership, a student must possess the four qualities for which the National Honor Society stands—Leadership, Character, Scholarship, and Service.

FTA

The Fairfield Chapter of the Future Teachers of America received its charter on October 30, 1962, under the leadership of Glenn Armstrong, who has been the club's adviser for the eight years of its existence. To qualify for membership a student must have an interest in the teaching profession and must maintain an accumulative average of 2.5 in all academic subjects. The purpose of the club is to help the student learn more about the teaching and to aid the student in deciding his vocation.

This year there are thirty-four members. The activities for the year include; Elementary Observance Days, FTA Day, Tea for Teachers, Career Day at Ohio State University, and awarding two scholarships to the most worthy seniors.

The FTA now has four former members teaching school and twenty-four former members attending college.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club provides an opportunity to broaden the student's interest in his heritage of the past. His participation also adds to his experience in club procedure. Since Latin lives today in words, mottoes, advertisements, art, law, and customs, there is abundant material for individual reports. In addition the programs include mythology, radio skits, audio-visual material, and panel discussions.

NEWS REPORTERS CLUB

GEORGE GREER
Adviser

The News Reporters Club is now in its second year. Members are the news reporters from the various school clubs and classes. From these members, one editor, one co-editor, and a photographer are chosen.

School news items, instead of being printed as a separate school paper, are included in the LEESBURG CITIZEN, the weekly town paper. Due to the kindness and interest of the CITIZEN'S editor, Mr. Mowrey, our school news is read and enjoyed not only by the students of Fairfield but also the citizens of Leesburg.

Mr. Greer, who is the club adviser, helped initiate this club.

PEP CLUB

Pep Club is organized by the cheerleaders at the beginning of each year. Membership is available to all students for the price of 50¢. You may purchase a card for $3.00 allowing you admittance to every home game. This results in a savings of approximately 40 per cent.

The purpose of the Pep Club is to maintain enthusiasm and spirit throughout the school year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

ADVISER Jim Cook

The Student Council of Fairfield High School was organized in 1961.

Each class elects two delegates and one alternate.

The Student Council was established to enrich our school and to prepare our students to become useful and responsible citizens of the school and the community.

In 1967 the Fairfield High School Student Council became a member of the Ohio Association of Student Councils. The Student Council is continually searching for ways to enrich FHS.

CLASS PROPHECY

U. S. Senate
Washington, D. C.
June 1, 1981

Dear old F.H.S.,

Well, its been ten years since most of us have seen each other, but I have been lucky in my work to be able to keep in touch with everyone.

MR. GLENN ARMSTRONG, who had many narrow escapes with our class, is now the proud owner of Armstrong's Armored Car Sales.

As many of you sports fans may know, ROGER DAMRON is a short-short stop for the Cincinnati Reds. Roger loaned his private nurse, PAM LEATH, to RICK WEBB, who broke his leg when his dragster wrecked at the Leesburg Drag Strip.

PAM SNYDER and DIANA BRACKETT have become successful partners in the Highland County Cheerleaders' Practice Camp, located at Centerfield, Ohio.

An old faculty member of ours, H. R. TOWNSEND, and former classmate, ALAN NEWBRY, are now working on an underseas laboratory in the Pacific.

PAM PRIEST, a well-known beautician, styles the hair of many famous women. One of her most frequent visitors is SUE PURTELL, the first female director of the Bridges Philharmonic Orchestra. Sue's accompanist is MRS. SHARON LYKINS, another former faculty member.

As you all rember, MR. WARREN POWELL showed our class many films and the producing fling got him. Among his top actors and actresses are: MARK LARRICK and MELANIE CORWIN. Their newest movie is "Fun on the Farm." Also featured in this film are KEVIN ZIMMERMAN and his dancing hogs, whose routines are arranged by the famous choreographer, JIM WINNER.

DENNIS BRANER has done rather well for himself. He is now president of Greenfield Research Company. Several of his many secretaries include, SHARON ALDRIDGE, MARGARET LIGHTNER, and LAURA COX.

Have you heard about the new book by MR. LEO HAYCOOK and ALAN SIMMONS? It is entitled "Ancient Tribal Dances of the Ubangi." It is predicted to be a best-seller.

ROGER BLACKBURN and MIKE BROWN have both used the vocational training they recieved at F.H.S. Mike is the National F.F.A. Advisor while Roger has become the Extension Agent of Highland County.

MISS KATHLEEN DAVIS, MRS. JUNE TOWNSEND, and MRS. LUCINDA WHITESIDE, other former teachers at Fairfield, recently chaperoned a tour group to the home of William Shakespeare in Stafford-on-the-Avon, England. Among travelers in this group were: CONNIE CREED, DIANNA URSELL, and MELISSA HARDESTY.

Two former coaches of Fairfield have gone on to higher goals. These men, JIM COOK and HARRY CAREY, are presently with the Cincinnati Royals as head coaches. Their star player, now averaging 45 points a game, is former classmate STEVE "BEAVER" BARRETT'

MR. D. M. MORROW has formed his own income tax center. The company is known to most as the H & R Square Company. His private sectetary is MARY SELLERS. BARRY STORER is the vice-president of the company.

I've just heard that the Cincinnati Bengals, owned by FRANCES ELLIS, have just won their 11th game in a row. With an 11-0 record and only 3 games remain to be played, the Bengals are likely to go to the Super Bowl.

Recently the Leesburg Auto Body Shop was opened. It is operated by MR. GARY HARPER and MIKE PRISTER. Business is booming and plans are already being made to enlarge the building.

Did you hear about the Indy 500? The top two winners this year are also classmates. The 1st place winner was JACKIE WILLIAMS, the first woman entrant in the history of Indy. The second place winner was ALLEN MAY, who has previously won the Grand Prix.

Another successful businessman of ours is TOM RHOADES. Tom is now operating the Ever-Ready Funeral Haven in downtown New York City.

Two other members of our faculty have both done well in the business world. MRS. MARY VANDERVORT has become vice-president of the Taylor Publishing Company, while MISS DIANNA SCHAAD is a Home Economist in the General Mills Corporation.

Although none of my former classmates have become doctors, one girl, SUSAN BARRETT, has become a registered nurse. She is now head of the nursing staff at Medical Center in Los Angeles.

During our Junior year at F.H.S. , man first landed on the moon. Now an alumnus, KATHY NEWMAN DUSSEAU, is living there while her husband, Col. Jeffery Dusseau, is stationed at the moon embassy as an attache. It's just so hard to realize how time flies.

Here at Washington, I am always running into several old friends. Major CRAIG MORGAN works at the Pentagon. He is now head of all defense operations on the moon. Today he left for the moon to meet with Ambassador GEORGE L. GREER. Ambassador Greer often comes to Washington on business, so I occasionally see him. LINDA MOORE, who was head librarian at FHS, has used her training and become the head librarian at the Library of Congress.

As you all know, I am Senator of Ohio, so I am kept constantly busy. Thanks to all my training at Fairfield, I get along quite well in this branch of the government.

Well, I must close now, since I am due at the Capitol for a voting session. I hope you have enjoyed catching up on the news from the Class of 1971. Thanks F. H. S., for everything.

Sincerely,

Shawn C. Priest

SYNOPSIS

The Senior Class presented "THE SKELETON WALKS," a 3-Act mystery-comedy, as their Junior Class Play. The plot is laid in a lonely old house on a small, isolated island. Elaine Blair and her family came to this place inherited by her at the time of her uncle's death, and found Dr. Fersig, a sinister physician, living there. Both were looking for a large sum of money hidden somewhere on the property. Strange things happened during the night, but finally the money was found and Dr. Fersig captured.

DIRECTOR

Carolyn Smith

SYNOPSIS

In their Senior year, the Class of '71 presented another mystery-comedy, "Stranger in the Night." The plot was centered in a small gift shop operated by two young ladies. A young newsreporter, Grant Terry, came to town with startling news—their gift shop was involved in a murder plot. Before long, everyone had heard the news, thought they were the victim, and suspected their closest friends. In the end, the would-be murderer is apprehended and everything turns out all right.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and seventy-one, being of sound mind and body, on this first day of May, 1971, do hereby declare this proclamation to be our last will and testament, thus revoking all aforesaid wills and testaments of the class.

To the Junior Class, we will our Senior privileges, our great Spirit, our Government books and our "ability to get things done."

To the Sophomore Class, we will our great sense of humor (which will be needed), our outstanding grades, and our modesty.

To the Freshman Class, we will our talent, brains, and good will toward our favorite teachers.

To the Faculty, we will our singing voices, our unprepared assignments, our animal instincts, and our good-looks.

I, Sharon Aldridge, will my one green eye and one brown eye to anyone who has a pair of eyes to match.

I, Steve Barrett, will my good luck with the girls to Greg G.

I, Susan Barrett, will my B's in government to anyone who need them.

I, Roger Blackburn, will my "63" Chevy to anybody who has a million dolloars to keep it running.

I, Diana Brackett, will my short blonde hair to Dan Taylor and my nut-cracker to Carol Boyle.

I, Dennis Braner, will my hair and side burns to Mr. Armstrong since he likes them so well.

I, Michael Brown, will my little black bow-tie to Donald M. Morrow.

I, Melanie Corwin, will my job as a soda jerk to any other jerk that will take it.

I, Laura Cox, will my hard-earned C's in government ot my brother Dean.

I, Connie Creed, will my ability to play sports well to my cousin Roy Lee Kelley.

I, Roger Damron, will my good looks and great personality to my brother Greg in hopes that he will make better use of it.

I, Frances Ellis, will my brilliant ideas to Debi Bobbitt.

I, Melissa Hardesty, will my government book to anybody who wants it.

I, Mark Larrick, will my nickname "Lester" to Terry Henson.

I, Pam Leath, will my ability to just miss trouble by the skin of my teeth to my little sister Jane.

I, Allen May, will my "57" beast to another Beast D. Merle Morrow.

I, Linda Moore, will all my luck with boys to anyone who wants to be a failure.

I, Craig Morgan, will my ability to play the piano to "Liberace."

I, Alan Newbry, will my ability to be a second "Einstein" to Kert Larkin.

I, Kathy Newman, will my government book to anyone who I hope will make better use of it than I did.

I, Mike Pfister, will my sick Chevy to "Decon" Locey who couldn't possibly hurt it any more than it is now.

I, Pam Priest, will my front seat in government to anyone who wants it.

I, Shawn Priest, will my beautiful black Corvair to Kevin Greer, David Morgan and Dan Taylor with the hope that they can drive it better than I can.

I, Sue Purtell, will my ability to be the only girl "trombonist" to Pam Slack.

I, Tom Rhoades, will my nickname "Dum Dum" to anyone who thinks they deserve it.

I, Mary Sellers, will all the laughs I've had in government this year to the "Class of 72."

I, Alan Simmons, will my body to Mr. Townsend's biology class.

I, Pam Snyder will my cheerleading years to my little cousin Jennifer Lynn Cook.

I, Barry Storer, will all of my absentee excuses to all of you poor jerks who like to miss school.

I, Dianna Ursell, will my government book and notes to Bonnie Burns in hope that she will use them.

I, Rick Webb, will my ability to talk to Mr. Morrow to Karen Priest.

I, Jackie Williams, will my "53" Chevy to "Hawkeye," so he can have some transportation for his woman.

I, Kevin Zimmerman, will my screaming Mustang to Craig Butler hoping that he will have better luck keeping it on the road than I have had.

When the moon is in the seventh house,
And Jupiter aligns with Mars,
Then peace will guide the planets,
And love will steer the stars.

This is the dawning of the age of Aquarius,
The age of Aquarius, Aquarius,

Harmony and understanding,
Sympahty and trust abounding.
No more falsehoods or derisions,
Golden living dreams of visions,
Mystic crystal revelation,
And the mind's true liberation.

(Words by James Rado and Gerome Ragni)
